

In the World of Sports

R. L. Spotts, N. Y. A. C., winning the National Amateur trap shoot championship at the N. Y. A. C. traps on Travers Island. His score was 196 out of a possible 200.

The roof of the Wanamaker Store in Philadelphia is used as an athletic field. Here the teams of different departments are having a one-mile relay race.

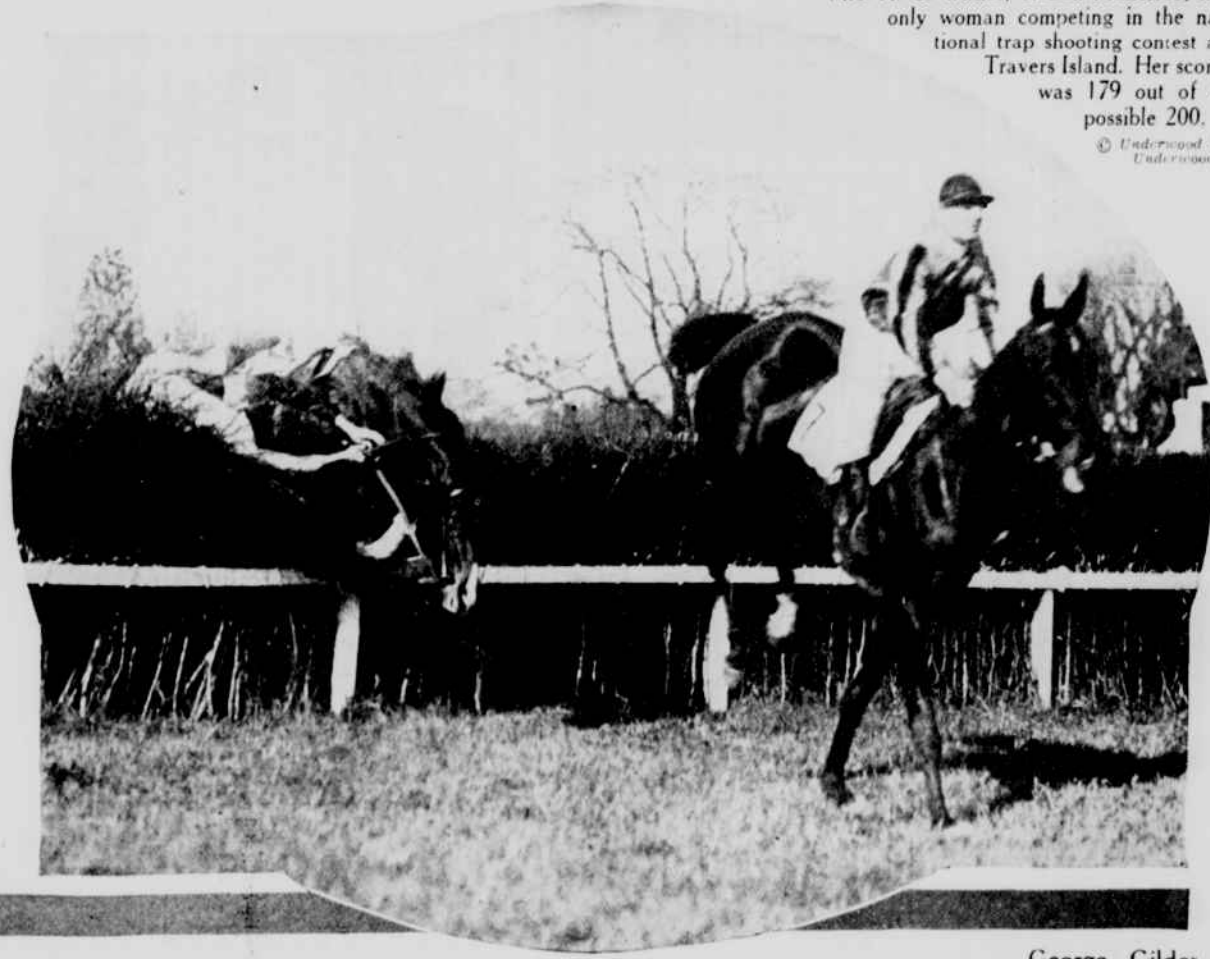

The "Sea Sled," cruising motorboat, making 34 miles an hour at South Boston, owned by Milton C. Wilson, of Chicago.

Mrs. A. G. Wilkes, of San Francisco, the only woman competing in the national trap shooting contest at Travers Island. Her score was 179 out of a possible 200.

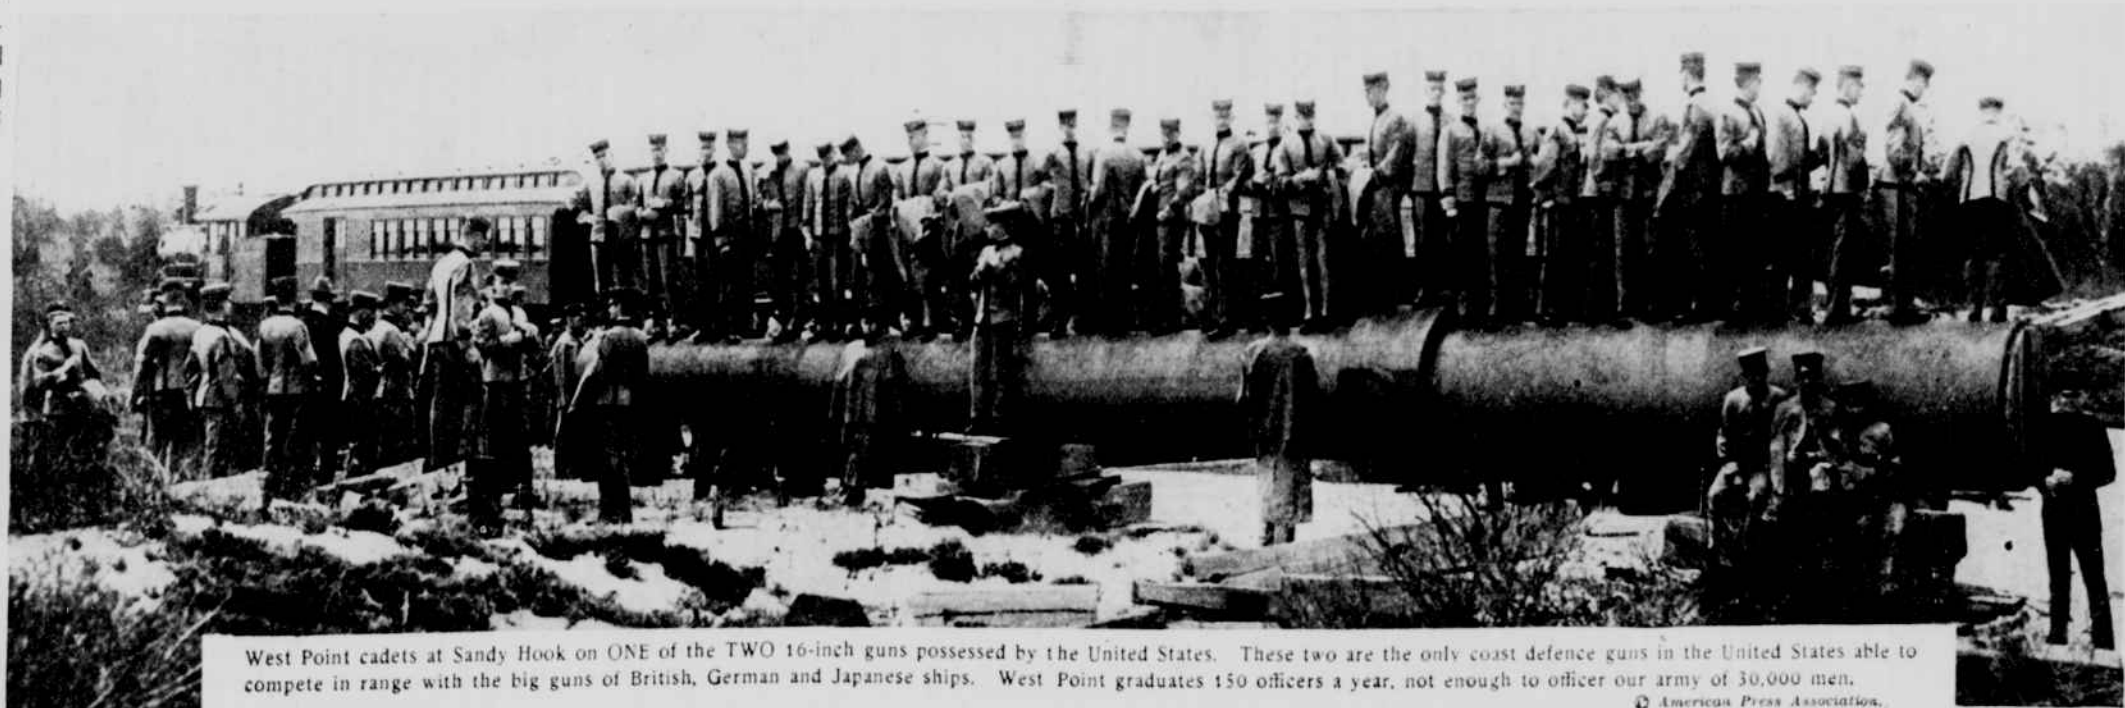

A scene on the Harlem Speedway at the seventeenth annual parade and horse show of the Road Drivers' Association of New York.

George Gilder falling from his mount at the first brush hurdle in the third race at the Rockaway Hunting Club meeting on May 6.

Greeley Photo Service

West Point cadets at Sandy Hook on ONE of the TWO 16-inch guns possessed by the United States. These two are the only coast defence guns in the United States able to compete in range with the big guns of British, German and Japanese ships. West Point graduates 150 officers a year, not enough to officer our army of 30,000 men.

American Press Association.